LETTER TO COMMITTEE

Sees Opportunities for Larger Democratic Service and

Grasps Them,

Mr. Stokes's Letter.

Mr. Stokes says in part:

"I feel that the time has come when I. as an individual, can be of most service in the cause of Democracy by co-operating, so far as I may, with those who are devoting themselves directly to the task of awakening wider recognition of what they and I believe to be a more basic evil than those which you and I have been attacking hitherto.

"I have long been, a believer in the philosophy of Socialism. Hitherto, I have refrained from "oc-operating with the Socialist party, owing to the intense bitterness and ill-will manifested by many Socialists toward nearly all persons who approve and support the capitalist system, and owing to what seemed to me otherwise, of very many Socialists. I have long recognized that material welfare alone is insufficient, and that material things are valuable only in so far as they are means to life and to the attainment of happiness and righteotisness.

Two Chief Classes.

"I have been long in perceiving clear!

WARRIORS' BONES Gruesome Reminder of Wholesale Amputation at Gettysburg is Unearthed. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GETTLSBURG, PA., July 12.-Works-men engaged in digging a cellar for the new annex to the courthouse at this place to-day unearthed about two bushels of human bones.

The bones were all from arms and legs, and a great number of them bore the marks of saws.

The old courthouse was used as a hostical during the amous battle, and it pital during the famous battle, and it is supposed that the hones mark the spot where the amputated arms and legs were burled.
